

Item: 2 of 2 | Return to headlines | First | PreviousMSN-Support | HelpSelect alternative format: BibTeX | ASCIIMR2166094 (Review)★ Aspects of universal logic.

Selected papers from the International Workshop on Universal Logic held in Neuchâtel, October 6–8, 2003.

Edited by J.-Y. Béziau, A. Costa Leite and A. Facchini.

Travaux de Logique [Works on Logic], 17.

Université de Neuchâtel, Centre de Recherches Sémiologiques, Neuchâtel, 2004. iv+254 pp.

03-06

Journal

Article

Doc
Delivery

References: 0

Reference Citations: 0

Review Citations: 0

Contents: Johan van Benthem and Darko Sarenac, The geometry of knowledge (1–31) MR2168105; Ramon Jansana, Selfextensional logics in abstract algebraic logic: a brief survey (32–65) MR2168106; Marta García-Matos, A framework for maximality and interpolation in abstract logics with and without negation (66–86) MR2168187; Pierre Joray, A note on definitions in propositional calculi (87–101) MR2168188; Alessio Moretti, Geometry for modalities? Yes: through n -opposition theory (102–145) MR2168189; Sheila R. M. Veloso and Paulo A. S. Veloso, On modulated logics for ‘generally’: some metamathematical issues (146–168) MR2168190; Paulo A. S. Veloso, On reasoning about ‘generally’ and ‘rarely’ with filter-like family of sets (169–198) MR2168191; Jean-Yves Béziau, Non truth-functional many-valuedness (199–218) MR2168192; Alexandre Costa-Leite, Towards a general theory of the combination of logics (219–230) MR2168193; Arthur Buchsbaum and Jean-Yves Béziau, Introduction of implication and generalization in axiomatic calculi (231–254) MR2168194.

{The papers will not be reviewed individually.}

© Copyright American Mathematical Society 2006